As a resident of Athlunkard, I do not believe that any further residential development should be allowed. The Corbally Road is now a car park. It can sometime take up to 5 minutes to take a right turn out of Carraig Midhe onto the Corbally road in the morning. A distributor road is a vital necessity to connect to the Dublin road. With further development planned for Pa Healy Road, the traffic into Limerick city will only make matter far worse than is already.
